

The curriculum balances practical problem-solving with the development of broad perspectives and conceptual skills. Participants learn to use an array of academic disciplines, analyze and understand important business issues. The result is a program that combines the study of key conceptual frameworks and their application to complex business challenges.

Core Courses Specialization

sr. no.	course title	no. of credits
1	Organisational Behaviour	1
2	Human Resource Management	1
3	Micro Economics	1
4	Business Environment	1
5	Financial Accounting for Decision Making	1
6	Management Accounting	1
7	Managerial Communications	1
8	Negotiation Skills	1
9	Personality Development	1
10	Business Strategy	1
11	Enhancing Corporate Performance	1
12	Marketing in Global Context I	1
13	Marketing in Global Context II	1
14	Corporate Finance I	1
15	Corporate Finance II	1
16	Entrepreneurship	1
17	Quantitative Techniques I (Statistics for Business Decisions)	1
18	Research Methodology	1
19	Quantitative Techniques II (Operations Research for Management Science)	1
20	Operations Management	1
21	Spreadsheet Modeling for Decision Making	1
22	Financial Statement Analysis	1
	Total Credits (Core)	22