

M.B.A. Hospital & Health Care Management or Master of Business Administration in Hospital & Health Care Management is a postgraduate Hospital and Health Care Management academic degree course. It combines the study of management techniques in a general M.B.A. program, with expertise training in healthcare or hospital management. The full degree course consists of four semesters in which the first two semesters are common to all the M.B.A. programs and the last two concentrate and focus on the specialized subjects and topics related to the Medical and Health care sectors. This two years course is designed to prepare students for senior positions in healthcare services.

M.B.A. Hospital & Health Care Management Eligibility

A bachelor`s degree in any stream is the pre-requisite for pursuing an MBA degree in Hospital and Healthcare Management. However some universities and institutes demand at least 50% aggregate marks in Bachelor`s degree.

Some reputed universities conduct a common entrance test (GMAT, CAT, XAT, MAT, SNAP, etc) for admission into its management courses but there are no different entrance tests for MBA degree in Hospital and Healthcare Management.

The common entrance test includes different papers like English, Problem Solving, Data Analysis and Interpretations, Numerical Ability, Logical Reasoning and General Awareness.

M.B.A. Hospital & Health Care Management Syllabus

The following are study related subjects:-

Sr. No.

Subject of Study

1

Fundamentals of Health Care Administration

2

Hospital Enterprises Management

3

Healthcare Policies and Regulations

4

Quantitative Methods/ Techniques for Taking Decisions

5

Strategic Negotiation and Conflict Management

6

Managerial Accounting and Cost Management in Healthcare

7

Management of Disease Control, Basic Economics and Healthcare Economics

8

Strategic Management of Healthcare Organizations

9

Operations Management, Health Management and Information Management in Healthcare

10

Administration of Hospital and Health Care Planning

11

General and Personnel Management in Health Institutions

12

Concepts of Epidemiology (Public Health Administration), Anatomy, Physiology and Medical Terminology

13

Financial Management & Inventory Control in Hospitals

14

Behavioral Science (Leadership and Organizational Behavior in Hospitals)

15

Organization & Management of Hospitals

16

Research Methodology

17

Healthcare Legislation and Medico Legal Issues

18

Human Resource Management and Material Management

19

Quality Assurance

20

Marketing

21

Hospital Engineering Services

22

Disaster & Risk Management

23

IT in Healthcare services

M.B.A. Hospital & Health Care Management CollegesTATA Institute of Social Sciences, Mumbai*AIIMS - All India Institute of Medical Sciences, Delhi*Christian Medical College, Vellore*Symbiosis Institute of Health Sciences, Pune*M.B.A. Hospital & Health Care Management Course Suitability

Candidates should have service mentality, stamina, patience, power of concentration, emotional stability, logical and analytical mind, problem solving ability, communication skills, leadership quality, ability to take timely decisions, self-motivation etc.

They should have the instinct to help and serve without getting sentimentally attached. Besides of these, one must have a pleasant smiling face whatever be the situation.

Candidates those who want to enhance their academic degrees after this and further degree also can apply for this course.

How is M.B.A. Hospital & Health Care Management Course Beneficial?

The healthcare industry is one of the biggest and happening industries in today's world. The M.B.A. degree in Hospital and Healthcare Management develops entrepreneurial healthcare facility managers who are well capable to face and overcome the challenges in a globalised healthcare sector.

These days, the Governments and the Administration have begun to recognize the importance of health and hygiene in the society; hence there is tremendous scope for growth in the healthcare industry. So Hospital Management Courses are becoming popular among students. The requirement of professional administrators in the hospitals is growing at a rapid pace as the hospitals are expected to deliver quality service 24 hours a day at a minimal cost. The level of urgency and efficiency that is expected from its staff has increased the need of well-formulated hospital management courses throughout the world.

MBA degree in Hospital and Healthcare Management can very well land you a job of middle level administrators in hospitals or healthcare and related sectors.

This MBA degree program will provide a professional qualification and knowledge about the managerial functions for those serving graduates who wish to take up healthcare services, pharmacy business management, pharmaceutical management and health or hospital management as a professional career. The degree is also equally or more beneficial to serving professionals in this sector.

Besides, Healthcare is the largest industry in the United States, employing more than 14 million people.

Also, career training in hospital management serves two purposes or two goals in life, first, earning a good salary package and second, offering services to the mankind.

M.B.A. Hospital & Health Care Management Job Types

Medical Superintendent

CEO-Hospital/ Nursing Home

Chief-Hospital Operations

Hospital Planning Adviser

Hospital Consultant for various Health Institutions and Govt. Departments

Hospital Consultant with WHO/NGO

Team Leader-Hospital Accreditation

Healthcare Management Executive

Hospital Quality Assurance Executive

Consultant-Disaster Management

Consultant-Trauma & Patient Care System

Professors Associate/ Assistant Professors, etc.

Health Administrator

Internal Corporate Analyst

Health Care Provider

Ambulatory Clinic Manager

Chief Nursing Officer