2.7.2 In case, two or more candidate obtain equal marks in SET, the inter-se-merit of such candidate shall be determined in order of preference as follows:

- (i) The candidate who has passed the qualifying examination (MD/MS/DNB) in the first/less number of attempts will be given preference for admission.
- (ii) If the candidate in the tie of marks has passed the qualifying examination (MD/MS/DNB) in the same number of attempts, then the candidate who has got more aggregate marks, taking into consideration marks of all the three professional examinations of MBBS course together, will be given preference for admission.
- (iii) If the candidates have equal marks in MBBS also, after taking into consideration marks of all the three professional examinations, then the candidate older/oldest in age will be given preference for admission.
- (iv) The merit list, after breaking the tie, will be displayed at the Notice Board of the Faculty of Medical Sciences as well as on the website (www.du.ac.in, www.fmsc.ac.in)

2.7.3 Counselling for each course/discipline would be held separately, i.e. discipline wise. If the course/discipline is available, in more than one Institution the candidate could make his choice in regard to the Institution, subject to availability as per merit. He/she would accordingly be issued an admission/allotment letter. He/she should join the course and Institution within the date specified.

If any vacancy in a Course/Discipline arises on account of the candidate offered admission and not joining the same or leaving the course after joining, these (vacant seats) would be offered in the 2nd Counselling to the candidates from the waiting list according to the merit. The manner of holding the 2nd Counselling would be the same as would be for the 1st Counselling.

No individual communication would be sent to the candidates in the waiting list and they should report on the date and time specified for the 2nd Counselling in this Bulletin of Information.

For each discipline the candidates in the waiting list would be those who were not offered admission in that Discipline.

A candidate who was offered admission but did not join the same or left the same after joining will not be included in the waiting list and cannot appear in the 2nd Counselling. Candidates may check the website of the Delhi University (www.du.ac.in) and the Faculty of Medical Sciences (www.fmssc.ac.in) for ascertaining whether there are any vacancies in any discipline and whether 2nd Counselling is being held. If there are no vacancies, no 2nd Counselling would be held. The above website would be updated before the date of the 2nd Counselling and the candidates are advised to check up the position upto 28.09.2012 (Friday).

- A. If the student leaves the course before its completion.
- B. If the admission/registration of the student is cancelled/terminated by the University on account of unsatisfactory performance/misconduct/indiscipline.

The Original Certificates of the student would be kept in the custody of the admitting Institution and would be returned only after completion of the course or on payment of Bond money, as the case may be.

2.7.4 No communication would be sent to the individual candidates for appearing before the Post-Graduate Admission Committee. The candidates should appear before the Post-Graduate Admission Committee on the specified dates and time according to their merit as per schedule given at page (i). The admission authority would reject such a request of a candidate for attending counselling who has already been offered a seat at any Institution/College by any admission authority and not submitted/brought the surrender certificate. Candidates should report to the Office of the Deputy Registrar, Faculty of Medical Sciences, 6th Floor, V.P. Chest Institute Building, University of Delhi, Delhi-110007 on the stipulated dates at 9:00 A.M. for DM/M.Ch. Counselling.

2.7.5 If a candidate is absent on his/her turn at the time of counselling and comes late on the same day before the end of the counselling, he/she may be allowed to appear in the counselling on his/her written request and on payment of ₹ 1000/- in cash as a penalty for coming late. Such candidate shall be permitted to appear in the counselling just after the candidate for whom counselling was going on, at the time when he/she submitted his/her request and deposited the penalty for late coming, subject to availability of a seat. He/she may opt for a course/Institution, which is available to him/her at that time only, as per his/her eligibility. He/she will have no claim on the seats/Institutions already allotted.

- 2.7.6 In case a candidate does not report before the end of first counselling session for the course/discipline on the specified date, he/she can not appear in the 2nd counselling.
- 2.7.7 The candidate will be required to produce admit card, original certificates as mentioned at Clause 2.4.2. and demand drafts of ₹ 25,600/- towards payment of fees as mentioned at Clause 2.7.3.(ii) & (iii) for verification, failing which he/she shall not be allowed to appear in the counselling.
- 2.7.8. Counselling for each course would be held separately i.e., Discipline wise.

2.8 Joining Report:

- 2.8.1 At the time of joining, the candidate would be required to submit the following in the assigned institution:
- (i) Joining Report

For each set of examination the following procedure will be adopted:

15 minutes before the commencement of the exam	Candidate shall report at the centre.
10 minutes before the commencement of the exam.	Issue of booklet by the Invigilator. The candidate will go through the instructions printed on the booklet and will fill in the particulars in the booklet in ink without breaking the seal of the test booklet open.
5 minutes before the commencement of the exam.	The candidate will break open the seal of the booklet, take out the answer sheet and will tally the serial number of the answer sheet with that of the test booklet. Discrepancy, if any will be brought to the notice of the Invigilator and the booklet and the answer sheet will be got replaced with a new one. They will also write down particulars on the answer sheet and will wait for the signal of the invigilator to commence the test. NOTE:- Paper I will be of 1 hour and 20 minutes duration and Paper II will be of 2 hours duration each for various specialities. No candidate will be allowed entry after the Test starts. No candidate will also be allowed to leave the Examination Hall unless the Test is over.
PENS	Candidate must bring their own black ball point pens for writing their particulars and marking their answers on the Answer Sheet.
THE TEST	Paper I will consist of 80 objective types of questions (items). Each item will be followed by four responses marked (1), (2), (3) and (4) of which only one will be the correct or the most appropriate one. The test will carry a maximum of 320 marks. Paper II will consist of 120 objective type of questions (items). Each item will be followed by four responses marked (1),

(2), (3) and (4) of which only one will be the correct or the most appropriate one. The test will carry a maximum of 480 marks.

SCORING

Each question carries 4 marks. For each correct response the candidate will get 4 marks. For each incorrect answer, 1 mark will deducted from total score.

MARKING OF ANSWER ON ANSWER SHEET

There are 4 oval circles for each of the questions numbered 1 to 80 for Paper I and 1 to 120 for Paper II. The oval circles are marked 1, 2, 3, 4. Candidate will find out the right answer to the question (item) and darken the appropriate oval circle completely by using black ball point pen.

Candidate must darken only one oval circle for each question. If they darken more than one oval circle it will be treated as a wrong answer.

Suppose the Q. No. 8 reads as follows:

8. The capital of Portugal is

(1) Lisbon (2) Paris (3) Madrid (4) Geneva

The correct response of this question is (1) Lisbon. Candidate will locate Q.No. 8 in the answer sheet and darken the oval circle (1) as shown in the figure given below.

If candidate does not want to answer any question, they should leave the oval circle of the concerned question unmarked.

RIGHT METHOD

Candidate must note that there is only ONE correct method of marking the response to any question as indicated below:-

WRONG WAYS

If a candidate darkens more than one oval circle for any question, the answer will be treated, as wrong. If candidates mark the response to any question in any other ways indicated below, their answer to the question will be treated as wrong.

Oval circles should be sufficiently and uniformly darkened to indicate the choice clearly. A lightly or faintly darkened oval circle will also be treated as a wrong method of marking.

ROUGH WORK

The candidates will NOT do any rough work on the Answer Sheet. All rough work is to be done in the Test Booklet itself.

PROCEDURE TO BE FOLLOWED:

1. A seat with a number will be allotted to each candidate. Candidate must find out and occupy their allotted seat.
2. The candidate should not take any article in the Examination Hall other than Admission Ticket and their instructions and pens for use during the examination. All books and notes, etc., should be kept outside the Examination Hall.
3. The candidate are also advised to bring with them a card board or a clip board, on which nothing should be written, so that they have not difficulty in marking responses in the Answer Sheet even if the tables provided in the Examination Hall do not have smooth surfaces.
4. Use of any calculating device like slide rule, log table or electronic/manual calculator is strictly prohibited.
5. Cellular phone/Mobile Phone/Cordless Phone/Communication device/Pager etc. are not allowed in the Examination Hall. No arrangement will be made to keep them at the Examination Hall. Possession of any communication device may lead to disqualification of the candidate.
6. Candidates shall maintain perfect silence and attend to their question paper only. Any conversation or gesticulation or disturbance in the Test Centre shall be deemed as unfair means. If a candidate is found using unfair means or impersonating, the candidature of such candidate shall be cancelled and he/she will be liable to be debarred from taking examination(s) either permanently or for a specified period or dealt with as per law or ordinance of the University according to the nature of offence, he/she may also be proceeded against and shall be liable for prosecution under the relevant provision of the Indian Penal Code. Canvassing directly or indirectly for allotment of seats or influencing the staff by unfair means would lead to serious consequences including disqualification of the candidate.
7. Each candidate must show, on demand, his/her Admission Ticket bearing his/her Roll Number, for admission to the Examination Hall.
8. During the examination, the invigilators will check admission tickets of the candidate to satisfy themselves about the identity of each candidate. The invigilators will also check whether the candidate has filled in the particulars correctly. The invigilator will also put his signature on the answer sheet.

9. A signal will be given five minutes before beginning of the Examination and at the closing time. The candidate must stop marking the responses after closing time.
10. After completing the Test and before handing over the answer sheet, it should be checked again that all the particulars required in the answer sheet have been written correctly.
11. No candidate, without the special permission of the Superintendent, or the Invigilator concerned, is allowed to leave his/her seat or the Examination Hall until he/she finishes his/her paper. Candidates should not leave the Hall without handing over their Answer Sheet to the Invigilator on duty.
12. Smoking in the Examination Hall is strictly prohibited.
13. Tea, coffee, cold drinks or snacks are not allowed to be taken into the Examination rooms during examination hours.
