Dear Learner,

Welcome to the academic course: Appreciation Course on Population and Sustainable Development. By enrolling in the course you have become a student of Indira Gandhi National Open University, one of the largest Mega Universities in the world. IGNOU offers educational programmes through Open and Distance learning mode. It is quite likely that you are getting this first ever experience as a distance learner. We as distance teachers may be physically at a distance from you but as far as teaching learning activity is concerned we shall always be with you in the form of study material and through other student support services.

To start with read this programme guide thoroughly, keep it handy and refer it as and when you get any doubt about proceeding further in this course. By following this programme guide you will be able to manage your course related activities very easily.

With Best Wishes

Programme Coordinator
ACPSD, SOA

1. THE UNIVERSITY

The Indira Gandhi National Open University (IGNOU) established by an Act of Parliament in 1985, has contributed significantly towards the promotion of higher education through Open Distance Learning (ODL). Through its distinctive features such as democratization of education, flexibility, application of ICT and unique teaching learning pedagogy, the University has continuously striven to build a knowledge society through inclusive education. The University is committed to quality in teaching, research, training and extension activities and acts as a national resource centre for expertise and infrastructure in the ODL system.

IGNOU in a relatively short time has made a significant contribution to the areas of higher education, community education, extension activities and continual professional development. The University offers wide range of programmes leading to certificates, diplomas, under graduate degrees, post graduate degrees and doctoral degrees. Over the years, the University has lived up to the country's expectations of providing education to the disadvantaged and marginalized sections of society.

For more information please visit: www.ignou.ac.in

2. SCHOOL OF AGRICULTURE

The School of Agriculture (SOA), established in January 2005 at IGNOU, strives to address the need for education and knowledge management in agriculture for safe and sustainable resource utilization and nutritional food production. Through various skill based programmes, the School has been focusing on academic and extension activities in agriculture.

3. ABOUT POPULATION FOUNDATION OF INDIA

The Population Foundation of India (PFI) is a national-level NGO at the forefront of policy advocacy and research on population, health and development issues in the country. Established in 1970 by a group of socially committed industrialists led by the late Mr JRD Tata and Dr Bharat Ram, PFI works to improve quality of life through increased access to quality family planning and reproductive health services, advocacy programs and capacity building at the national, state and district levels.

For more information please visit: www.populationfoundation.in

4. ABOUT THE COURSE

As is common knowledge, the population of the world has crossed the 7 billion mark of which India's population is more than 1 billion, the second highest for any country after China. However, the discussion on population must be understood in a more holistic manner rather than be limited to only numbers and statistics. At its heart, population is a human issue where we are talk about women and men, their reproductive choices and health, their quality of life and well-being.

Instead of a top-down approach of looking at population growth in an alarmist way, we need to adopt a rights based approach, where the dignity of human life is upheld. The State and the society at large must ensure that essential services – like health, education and opportunities for livelihoods, and a healthy environment – exist for one and all so that there is a permissive environment for people to make informed choices, reproductive and even otherwise.

Keeping these fundamentals in mind, the Appreciation Course on Population and Sustainable Development aims to explore the linkages between ‘population’ and ‘sustainable development’ in India, looking into the intersection of population issues with areas such as health, education, opportunities for livelihoods, environmental safety and sustainable development.

The course goes on to tease-out new concepts, emerging issues, public discourse and debates and the inter-linkages vis-a-vis ‘population and sustainable development in India’.

4.1 Course Objectives

- To introduce the contemporary issues in the field of population studies concerning the interrelationships between population and social and economic development.
- To explore and gain insights into the appropriate strategic planning for population stabilization.
- To understand other related thematic areas including environment, gender, reproductive health and other health issues, ageing and population displacement within broader perspectives of population and development.
- To provide an understanding of theory based knowledge as well as field experiences on the several dimensions pertaining to population and sustainable development in India.

4.2 Credits

At IGNOU, we define credit as “ a notional representation of a fixed amount of students’ study hours devoted to various aspects of study: studying the text with comprehension, working on assignments, going through other course related documents, listening to the audio programmes, viewing the video programmes, attending the academic counselling, etc.” One credit is equal to 30 study hours. The Appreciation Course on Population and Sustainable Development is a 4 credit course. Thus, for completing this course a student has to put in 120 hours of study.

4.3 Admission Procedure

IGNOU announces walk-in registration throughout the year for admission to January and July academic sessions. The university offers online admission procedure by which the prospective learners are able to submit their application forms online. The form for admission can also be obtained from the Regional Centres of the University or it can be downloaded from the University Website. The filled-in application form with the requisite enclosures is to be submitted at the Regional Centre as per the specified date. Student Registration is done at all the Regional Centres for Indian students and through sponsoring institutions in case of students from abroad. The course will run in two cycles in a year.

4.4 Entry requirement

Candidates with a Bachelor’s degree or equivalent in any discipline from a recognized University are eligible to apply.

4.5 Language of Instruction

The medium of instruction will be English.

4.6 Duration and Mode of Learning

5.2 Project work

The course has the component of field work /project to give practical training to the learners. You are required to undertake a project on any subject concerned with the issue of population and sustainable development. The synopsis of the project will be submitted to the Programme Coordinator. Once the synopsis is approved, the project should be carried out under the guidance of project supervisor.

In addition, some suggested topics for Project Work are given in Block 4 of the course. After collecting data or facts, the findings and conclusions must be presented in the form of project Report. The Project Report must be of around 500-1000 words, either handwritten or typed in double space and should be submitted to the Programme Coordinator.

6. COUNSELLING AND ASSIGNMENT RELATED INFORMATION

Counselling

There will be 4 counselling sessions of 2 hour each. The counselling shall be done at the study centres and the monitoring shall be done by the Regional Centres. You should contact your study centre for the schedule of such counselling sessions. The counselling sessions are not compulsory. However, we advise you to attend them as far as possible, because they would be very useful in certain aspects to share your views on the subject with your academic counsellors and fellow learners; comprehend some of the complex ideas/concepts or difficult issues discussed in your materials, and get clarifications for any of your doubts which you would not have solved yourself.

Assignments

Assignment is an important component of your study. Each block of ACPSD has one compulsory assignment. The assignments carry 60 % weight in the final results. It means you have to submit one assignment per block to complete the course. The assignments have to be submitted to the Programme coordinator as per the date mentioned in the assignment. Date for submission of assignments for the January and July sessions will be informed along with the assignments.

Guidelines for writing assignment

Write your enrolment number, name and full address at the top right side corner of the first page of your assignment response(s).

Write the course title, assignment number and the date of submission in capital letters in the centre at the top of the first page of your response(s).

Your answer should be pin pointed and well documented. Do not copy from the study materials. Answers should be hand written. Leave at least 1.½ inches margin on the left and at least 4 lines in between each other.

You must keep a copy of your assignments. If these are lost in postal transit you may re-submit the copy only after taking permission from the authority.

The top of the first page of your response(s) should look something like this:

Course Title

Assignment Name Enrolment Number.....

Date of Submission/posting

Address

Pin code

Email address (if any)

7. EVALUATION

The evaluation system of the programme is based on two components:

- a) Continuous evaluation in the form of assignments (weightage: 60%) The assignments are to be submitted to The Programme Coordinator. There will be one assignments each for Block 1—3. Each assignment carries 50 marks. It is compulsory for the students to submit all the prescribed assignments.
- b) Project Work (weightage: 40%). Project Evaluation will be done at the Headquarters. The Project Report Evaluation Criteria is as follows :
 - Task Definition and Approach (25% weightage) which includes precise statement of objectives and Specification of methodology/ process and justification of the selection of the topic.
 - Literature Review, Findings and Evaluation (50% weightage)
 - Communication of Ideas and Writing style (25% weightage)

Grading

Based on these general criteria of evaluation of the project work, the project will be given a specific grade, which may be interpreted as follow:

Grade	Remarks
A	Excellent
B	Very Good
C	Good
D	Satisfactory (one has to rewrite the project)
E	Unsatisfactory for these grades.

The minimum standards for completion of the course are the following:

- Minimum 'D' Grade in Continuous Evaluation i.e. assignments in each block
- Minimum 'C' Grade in the Project Work.
- Final Grade (Assignment + Project Work) should be at least C

8. CERTIFICATE

The certificate will be signed by the Director of the School and shall be issued by the School.

9. SOME USEFUL HINTS

Please read the Programme Guide thoroughly and keep it handy. It contains most of the information you are likely to need during the study period.

Please keep a record of all the information/letters/communication received from and sent to the University.

Do write to us if you face any problem while working through the programme. Please write briefly and neatly for a quick redressal to you problem.
